Mission Day And Ordination Service at Cave Spring Church.

There were many sad hearts in the neighborhood, of Cave Spring church when they awoke on Sunday morning, July 11th, to find it raining. That being the day set apart by that church to hold mission and ordination services.

As the day wore on, the clouds would seem to disperse and then in a few moments the rain would patter down.

A very large crowd had been expected, but owing to the enclenemey of the weather, the house was not more than half filled. At 11 a. m., the Pastor, W. R. Gibbs, delivered an able sermon on the subject of "Missions," after which collection was taken, amounting to $39.00, notwithstanding the small congregation.

At 2:30 p. m., after song and devotional service, a Presbytery was organized, composed of Elder J. J. Franks, mod.; Elder U. G. Hughes, Clerk; and W. R. Gibbs, to ordain to the office of Deacon, Philip H. Hughes and Guy W. Myers. The examination was conducted by U. G. Hughes, the ordination prayer by W. R. Gibbs, the laying on of hands by Presbytery, the charge to the candidates was delivered by J. J. Franks, the charge to the church by U. G. Hughes, song and right hand of fellowship by Presbytery and congregation. Notwithstanding the fact we were principally all Baptist, we submitted to sprinkling when partaking of the bountiful dinner prepared by the sisters of that community.

Mr. Trail, who had charge of the song service, rendered excellent music with his choir.

The day was enjoyed very much by all present.

TAXES DUE.

The state and county taxes are now due and to relieve the sheriff of a great responsibility, should be paid at once. On December 1, I, as sheriff of Crittenden county, am required to settle with the state, and if I should fail to collect these taxes it would work a hardship on me as well as my bondsmen, to have to pay your taxes. So come up at once and settle your taxes promptly. Do not wait for the penalty, or even a nearness to it, but pay them now if you possibly can.

In the near future I will have appointments for myself or one of my deputies for each precinct and to meet us at the designated time and place to receive a clear receipt for your taxes, will aid your sheriff more than you may perhaps imagine.

Now, as my whole desire is to try to collect the taxes for this year without a single levy, or even penalty, I again urge you to aid me in this by coming to these places or to my office at Marion and settling same.

Hoping every tax payer of Crittenden county will aid me by an early settlement of the common burden resting upon all in proportion as God has blessed him,

I am yours very respectfully,
J. G. ASHER, S. C. C.

OUR MERCHANTS

The Liberal Use of Printers Ink Is Bringing Good Results.—Five Full Pages Last Week.

The live, wide-awake merchants of Marion are reaping a rich harvest and, too, during the dull season of the year, and all because they keep the needs of the people in stock and advertise what they keep. A liberal use of printers-ink is not thrown away on an appreciative people. A page add may not interest one man when it is just what the other fellow is looking for. The good housewife does not feel interested in one merchants add while she is deeply so in another, but she reads all of them just the same.

Montgomery, Ward & Co., and Sears & Roebuck advertise their goods else the people would not be guilty of sending money out of the State for goods, that in many instances, they could have bought cheaper at home.

Keep what these mail-order houses keep and let the people know you keep them and they will have little excuse for sending hard earned money out of the State for cheap goods. Our merchants are enterprising, business men, who, both want and need your trade. They buy your produce, giving you for it in many instances, more than you could get for it away from home, saving you the freight, and surely you should patronize the people that buy your surplus. These mail-order houses tell you what they have and very frequently, as well as unfortunately, you buy of them. But just send them an ad, setting forth the fact that you have chickens, ducks, geese, turkeys, butter and eggs for sale and they will laugh you to scorn.

Stand by your home merchants. They are your friends and you can be theirs. How do you think it looks for you to ask your home merchant for credit and turn from him to an unappreciative stranger to spend your money? Surely you should not send your money to merchants who would not credit you for a dime.

Come to Marion, new things are happening, a new era is being lived and the good old town is on a boom.

Crittenden County Sabbath School Association Convention.

All Sunday Schools are requested to send delegates to the above named convention to meet at Marion Graded School building at Marion, Aug. 30th and 31st. Every Sunday School is entitled to five delegates, all to be entertained free.

Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Marion Sunday Schools. All workers cordially invited and every school urged to send delegates.
JAMES ALEX. HILL, Sec'y.

550 Hogheads go to an English Purchaser at Committee's Price.

[BY JAMES N. BARKS.]

Manager William Elliott has closed a deal with an English purchaser whereby five hundred and fifty hogheads of Association tobacco—all put up at Seebree—is sold to go over the water. I write it five hundred and fifty hogheads when for utmost accuracy I should record it as from five hundred to five hundred and fifty hogheads, the product of two Seebree factories.

All I am permitted to say in regard to the price is simply this: The price is that named by the Executive Committee of this Association, and will yield to holders of Seebree warehouse receipts the face value thereof, plus a dividend. The English purchasers stipulate that prices shall not be published until they have an opportunity to market their purchases.

The sale will realize for the Association from seventy-five thousand to eighty-five thousand dollars.

It gives me unalloyed satisfaction to report this sale to the good and loyal members of this Association who are so patient and uncomplaining when sales are delayed.

"Any prospects for further sales?"

I plumped at Manager Elliott.

"Tell the good members prospects are good," he answered.

For Sale.

We are authorized to sell the old Southern Presbyterian church building and lot in Fredonia, Ky.

Those desiring to purchase will please mail bids for same to J. W. Blue, Jr., of Marion, Ky., before the 15th of August 1909.

Chas. Eldred,
Rold Gresham,
J. W. Blue,
Committee.

Birthday Party.

On July 23rd, 1909, at the country residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Summerville, Mattoon, Ky., their little daughter, Mildred, celebrated her twelfth birthday by serving dinner and ice to several of her friends. Among those present were grandfather and grandmother Summerville, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gugenheum and son, Samuel, Jr., of Marion, Mrs. Lillie Shrode, of Hopkinsville, Ruth Hearin, of Madisonville, Geneva Daniel and mother, of Marion, Florence Moore, of Repton, and Clara Barton Woody, of neighborhood.

All kinds of outdoor games were played, but the most enjoyable one seemed to be riding Midget, Mildred's and Eugene's pony, and playing with Trixie.

Many nice and beautiful presents were received. All seemed to enjoy themselves, and after wishing Mildred a long and happy life, left for their respective homes late in the afternoon.
